SECTION 1 - Recognized Divisions- No Year End Points

Leadline

Open to any beginning rider. Riders to be led by a ground person or have a ground person walk beside them. Leadline riders are only allowed to go into the Beginner Walk Trot no-diagonals classes and no other division.

Section 2- Recognized Division- Year End Points and Prizes

Beginner Walk/Trot No Diagonals *2023

Open to all junior/amateur riders. Riders to show at the walk and trot. Riders are not required to know their diagonals. The division may be split into two or more groups at the show manager's discretion. Riders may not cross enter into any other division at that show. The division is to be run with one Equitation, and one under saddle and one Pleasure class.

Horse/Ponies may have martingales. If only one Beginner Walk/Trot rider, the rider may be allowed in the regular walk/trot division at the manager's discretion without penalty. The division will run with two or more riders. However the manager can choose to run the class with only one entry if the rider is not comfortable joining the regular walk/trot division.

Walk/Trot

Open to all junior and adult amateur riders. Riders to show only at the walk and trot. The division may be split into two or more groups at the show manager's discretion. However the division must be split as equally as possible (ex. 2 groups of 8 or 3 groups of 5). Riders may not cross enter into any other division. The division is to be run with one Equitation, one Under Saddle, and one Pleasure class. A rider is eligible for Walk/Trot in their first or second years of showing. Horse/Ponies may have martingales. Riders who have been Champion or Reserve Champion in this Division at the CEC Year End Awards must graduate to the Walk/Trot/Canter Division.*

Walk/Trot Poles* 2023– (Equitation Division) – One flat class, then riders to show at a trot over 4 poles in two classes with one tracking left and one tracking right. Horse/Ponies may use martingales. Riders may cross enter into the Walk/Trot Division or the Walk/Trot/Canter Division but not both divisions in the same show or show year.

Walk/Trot/Canter

Open to all junior and adult amateur riders in their 1st or 2nd year of showing at a canter. Riders may not cross enter into any other division except crossrails or future hunter/future rider. They cannot enter crossrails and future hunter at the same show if entered in Walk/Trot/Canter. The division is to be run with one Equitation, one Under Saddle, and one Pleasure class. Horses/Ponies may have martingales.

Riders who have been Champion or Reserve Champion in this Division at the CEC Year End Awards must graduate to another division (either Crossrails, or Future Hunter, or Stirrup/Long Stirrup Hunter).*

Hunter Hack *2023

Open to all horses and riders. To be judged on the rail at a walk, trot, and canter. Will be asked to individually jump two crossrail jumps traveling away from the gate. The class will be judged as a hunter class.

Green Horse/Adult Walk and Trot *2023

These classes will be available to green horses in their first or second year of showing and all adults 18 years or older. Judged on performance, manners, way of going and soundness.

Green Horse/Adult Walk, Trot, & Canter *2023

These classes will be available to green horses in their first or second year of showing and/or to all adults 18 years or older. Judged on performance, manners, way of going and soundness.

Open Pleasure Walk/Trot/Canter *2023

This class is open to all horses & ponies. This class is to be judged on the horse or ponies ability to display good manners, responsiveness to the rider, well balanced movement with a calm consistent pace.

Go As You Please *2023

Open to all horses and riders. This is a pleasure class to be judged on the horse or pony. Horse and ponies will travel both direction of the ring at a walk and trot (jog and canter (lope)). Then the judge will request the Horses or ponies to "Go As You Please". Go As You Please means the rider may choose their gait of pleasure they think their horse performs the best. You may choose a trot (jog), canter (lope), or whatever gait your horse performs the best. Horses & ponies are judged on their manners, way of going, and quick response to their rider's requests.

- Schooling Hunter and Pre-Green Hunter
- All Age Group Equitation Divisions (11 and Under, 12-14, 15-17, Adult)

Show management and the points secretary must be notified which division they would like their points to count.

Year End Points –Champion and Reserve Champion Calculation

- Annual memberships required:
 - Horse must be current member in order to accumulate hunter points. Rider must be current member in order to accumulate equitation points.
- There must be at least two or more riders in a class for points to count towards year end awards and Champion and Reserve at a horseshow.
- There must be two hunter over fences classes and one hunter under saddle class to award Champion and Reserve at a horse show in hunter divisions. The horse with the most points in that division will be Champion- (20 pts). The horse with the 2nd most points in that division will be Reserve Champion –(12 pts)
 - Ties for Champion and Reserve are broken by the horse in hunter classes that have the most points over fences in that division. Poles classes will break the tie for the w/t poles division. If a tie still occurs based on the first tie breaker rule, show management may request an Under Saddle hack off for Hunter divisions.
- There must be one Equitation, one Under Saddle, and one Pleasure class in Walk/Trot, and Walk/Trot/Canter to award champion and reserve champion.
 - Ties for Champion and Reserve in Walk/Trot, Walk/Trot/Canter are broken by the rider who has the most points in Equitation since points are carried in the riders name. If a tie still occurs based on the first tie breaker rule, show management may request an Equitation Flat phase return for the Walk/Trot or Walk/Trot/Canter division.
- Champion and Reserve Champion points are not accumulated for Equitation divisions (11 and Under, 12-14, 15-17, Adult, CEC Equitation, Crossrail Equitation) However some shows reserve the right to award Champion and Reserve Champion ribbons to the high point winners for their divisions at their horse shows.

If the number of entries warrants a split division, then Champion and Reserve Champion should be awarded for each section as long as the requirements listed above are met.

Hunter Points- A rider must register his/her horse for membership with CEC in order for the horse to earn points in their division for year-end awards. (Schooling Hunter, Pre-Green Hunter, CEC Hunter, Pre-Child/Adult Hunter, Children's/Adult Hunter, Crossrail Hunter, CEC TIP Class, (Points on Hunter Page)

General Rules and Regulations

Prize lists

Must be mailed out or received and posted on the website 21 days from show date and anyone riding under the judge (such as lessons or coaching) may not do so 25 days before the show.

Judges Rule

Judges should not judge the same show ring more than 2 times in the same show season. Judges should not judge same show two years in a row. Judges should not be directly associated with the trainer/show manager (related, boarding, student receiving instruction, employed). Riders should not show under a judge if they have received instruction in the last 25 days from that person. It is the responsibility of the rider, rider's parent, and/or trainer to ensure a rider does not show under someone who is related to a judge or has a financial commitment or a personal tie (living with or on their property, boarding, participating in their riding program).

Ring Procedure

Show management reserves the right to close a class. Show management determines which class in one ring takes priority over a class in another ring. The announcer, gate crew, and trainers should contact the show manager when delaying a class for approval or requesting to close a class.

Courses-

Horse show fences and course construction are the responsibility of show management. A hunter course shall be any course which management deems a fair test of a show hunter. Fences shall simulate obstacles found in the hunting field such as a natural post and rail, brush, stone wall, white board fence or gate, chicken coup, aiken, hedge or oxer. A ground line is recommended for all fences. Course diagrams must be posted before the scheduled time of the class. The diagram of the course must show the obstacles and the order and direction from which the obstacle must be taken. Fence distances of 90' from base to base must be indicated on the diagram so that striding may be determined.

Horse/Pony Use Rule

Horses/ponies are not allowed to be used more than 10 classes per show in which 7 of those may be jumping classes.

Acceptable Equipment

Trainers/Riders must be familiar with acceptable legal bits and riding equipment allowed in the show ring based on USEF rules. A judge/show manager may disqualify a rider and/or excuse the rider from the show ring if appropriate equipment is not being used properly.

Bell Boots and Wraps

These are not allowed in Hunter Divisions but may be used in Equitation and Medal classes if appropriate. The only exception to this rule is upon judge's approval prior to showing (ie. muddy and/or deep footing)

Martingales

Are allowed in the walk/trot, walk/trot/canter and the cross-rails hunter under saddle and equitation flat class. All other divisions do not allow Martingales in under saddle/flat classes.

Proper Riding Attire

Such as Head Gear (Helmets), and Foot Wear (Boots) are required at all CEC horse shows.

Helmet Rule

Only ASTM/SEI approved Helmets must be worn at all CEC shows. Chin straps should be tight to prevent disqualification.

Coggins All horses/ponies must have a current negative coggins.

Division Waiver

Rider who are not ready to progress to the next division based on current CEC rules but have not been Champion or Reserve Champion may request a placement waiver and submit a request to the board for approval prior to showing in the division in that current show season.

Schooling Rule

There should be no more than 8 horses schooling in the beginner ring at one time (ring with W/T, W/T/C, Crossrails, Future Hunter/rider, Short/Long Stirrup). There should not be more than 10 horses schooling in the main ring 1 at one time. If a horse/rider combination appears to be unsafe, show management reserves the right to refuse entry in a division above the rider/horses level for liability reasons.

Entry Fees

All entry fees and additional fees should be paid in full prior to leaving the show grounds. Any nonpayment or returned checks must be paid in full along with bank handling fees before points will count and any further participation in any other CEC events will be allowed.

Complaints

All complaints should be addressed to a CEC Executive Board member at a horse show or in writing to the CEC board within two weeks of the horse shows. If there are any discrepancies or questions about points, you have 30 days from the date the points are posted on the website to contact the points secretary.

Final Points

All points are final two weeks prior to the banquet. It the responsibility of the rider to check their points on the website monthly.

Class Splits

It is recommended to split classes at 12 entries for Beginner Walk/Trot, Walk/Trot Equitation poles, Walk/Trot, Walk/Trot Canter, Crossrails, Future Hunter/rider, and Long/Short Stirrup. It is recommended not to hack more than 12 horses on the rail at one time for all under saddle and flat classes. The division may be split into smaller groups if a horse/pony is being shared by more than one rider (ex. 2 groups of 3 or 4 with a shared horse in each group)

Rider/Horse Initial Placement

A junior rider is 17 years and under as of Dec. 1. An adult rider is 18 years and older as of December 1st. Rider placement is based on the age of the rider and all classes they have previously participated in at any sanctioned show (CEC or non-CEC- SCHJA, PSJ, IEA, BRHJA, 4H, NCHJA, GHJA). Horse placement is based on the previous fence height the horse has jumped at any recognized show (see class/division specifications).

Three Inch Rule

In order to comply with other organizations, fence heights may be raised or lowered by 3 inches except in division or classes which restrict the use of the 3 inch rule.
